

London

Wembley Stadium
Tuesday 27 January

Manchester

Emirates Old Trafford
Monday 2 February

Supporting SENCos in managing access arrangements

What's the purpose of the National SENCo Conference 2026?

- To ensure that you are kept up-to-date with the latest information in relation to access arrangements and reasonable adjustments
- To help you in meeting the JCQ requirement to undertake regular CPD
- Opportunity to speak with experts within the field of special educational needs and access arrangements which include representatives from JCQ, the JCQ Centre Inspection Service, Communicate-ed, Patoss Dyslexia Charity and the JCQ awarding bodies
- To network with SENCo colleagues

Agenda

9.00: Welcome & introductions

9.15: Keynote (Ofqual)

9.45: Meeting the JCQ requirements with regard to adult access arrangements facilitators and invigilators (Communicate-ed, Caroline Read)

10.30: Break

11.00: Dealing with parental requests/pressure for access arrangements... in particular, extra time, alternative accommodation and/or separate invigilation (NAEO, Jugjit Chima)

11.45: Supporting SENCos in Evidencing and Embedding 'Normal Way of Working' for Access Arrangements (Patoss Dyslexia Charity, Jan Brook)

12.30: Lunch

1.15: JCQ regulations update (JCQ, Nick Lait)

2.00: JCQ Centre Inspection Service update (JCQ CIS, Lynne Dustan)

2.45: Break

3.00: Panel discussion (Nick Lait, Lynne Dustan, Caroline Read, Jan Brook + others TBC)

3.30: Close

Timings are indicative and may be subject to change

Breakfast upon arrival

Mid-morning and afternoon refreshments

2 course hot buffet lunch

Discounted
Rate
Available

Attend for just £295 per delegate, including all refreshments and lunch
Member Centres of The Exams Office enjoy a discounted rate of £265 per delegate
Extra delegate places are also available at these rates